TAIWAN SOCIETY OF ANALYTICAL PSYCHOLOGY

Dear Colleagues, Analysts, and Presidents of Jungian Analytic Training and IAAP Developing Groups,

The Taiwan Society of Analytical Psychology (TSAP) is delighted to announce that Dr. John Beebe has agreed to collaborate with us in offering a comprehensive training program on his Eight-Function, Eight-Archetype Model of Psychological Type. This in-depth study is specifically designed for practicing clinicians (analysts and routers) and John will be teaching clinicians throughout on specific aspects of how his model of type can be usefully applied to the practice of analytical psychotherapy:

This program will span three years, with each year focusing on a distinct stage:

1. Stage One: Type Recognition of Jung's 8 function-attitudes

   Extraverted Sensation (Se) & Introverted Sensation (Si)
   Extraverted Intuition (Ne) & Introverted Intuition (Ni)
   Extraverted Thinking (Te) & Introverted Thinking (Ti)
   Extraverted Feeling (Fe) & Introverted Feeling (Fi)

2. Stage Two: Clinical Recognition of the archetypal positions in which function-attitudes organize consciousness

   Hero/Heroine, Father/Mother, Puer/Puella, Anima/Animus.
   the Opposing Side of Personality, Senex/Witch, Trickster, the Demonic/Daimonic Undermining Side of Personality

3. Stage Three: Clinical Application and Case Conference

Dr. Beebe has outlined the following objectives for this course:

- Helping clients identify their strengths and weaknesses.
- Assisting clients toward recognizing their own complexes.
- Increasing clients' awareness of their defenses even when they are in shadow.
- Enabling clients to recognize and understand the motives of their opposing and undermining and otherwise critical or depreciating inner voices.

- Highlighting inherent opportunities for growth within every aspect of the psyche that includes a type of consciousness
- Identifying "hooks" for projection in clients' relationships with the consciousnesses and unconsciousness of others.
- Recognizing typological "hooks" for projection in transference and countertransference.
- Helping clients become more conscious of what they envy, admire, or dislike in the type strengths and weaknesses of others.
